

J. RIEGER & CO

Founded by Jacob Rieger in 1887, Kansas City-based J. Rieger & Co. was the largest mail-order whiskey house in the country before Prohibition shut down operations. In 2014, Andy Rieger, the great-great-great-grandson of Jacob Rieger, and renowned bartender Ryan Maybee, relaunched the distillery as part of a new golden era in American spirits backed by two industry legends: the late Master Distiller Dave Pickerell and Master Distiller Tom Nichol. Today, J. Rieger & Co. provides award-winning spirits, innovative cocktails, and memorable experiences to guests at their historic distillery in Kansas City's Electric Park District.
